Commencement Set For 8 P.M. Friday

Commencement exercises for 162 seniors, the largest graduating class of Appomattox County High School, will be held Friday, June 8, 1973 at 8:00 p.m. in the Appomattox County High School stadium.

Speakers will be valedictorian, Gary Dean Hudson; and salutatorian, David Sidney Wheeler.

Gary Hudson will speak on "How Does Pace Begin With Me?" and David Wheeler has chosen to speak on "How Is Peace Attained?", both talks based on the class theme "Peace Begins With Me."

Mr. H. Wayne Tucker, principal at ACHS, will award the 162 diplomas to the graduating class.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. H. E. Riley, Jr., pastor of Memorial Methodist Church, with a welcome by David Wheeler, president of the senior class.

The benediction will be given by the Rev. R. Q. Lawing and the Appomattox County High SChool Band, directed by Mr. Frank Coffey, will play tahe "Fanfare and Processional" and the "Fanfare and Recessional."

Class Day was held on Wednesday, June 6, at the ACHS auditorium.

Officers for the Class of 1973 include David Wheeler, president; Nathan Snell, vice-president; Judy Harvey, secretary; Donna Stanley, treasurer; Joan Coleman, reporter; and Doug Webb, parliamentarian. The class motto is "Peace Begins With Me" and class colors are blue and gray.

This year the girls will be dressed in gray caps and gowns and the boys will be dressed in blue caps and gowns.

A baccalaureate service was held on Sunday evening at the ACHS stadium at 8:00 p.m. Guest speaker for the evening was the Rev. James E. Leary, pastor of St. Luke's Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia.

Class sponsors are Mrs. Mary Grey Holland and Mrs. Harriette Beasley.

Honor graduates, other than the valedictorian and salutatorian, include Brenda Gail Almond, Leila Elizabeth Austin, Michael Lowell Belter, Sharon Lynn Bland, Virginia Gail Ferguson, Beatrice Henry, Julia Sheffield Hesson, Patricia Lloyd Hudson, William Edward Lewis, James Patrick Torrence, Mary Ellen Schrock, Donna Lynn Stanley, James Drinkard Torrence and June Carol Wood.

Local Squad Answers 39 Calls In May

The Appomattox County Rescue Squad responded to 39 emergency calls during the month of May of 1973.

Volunteers traveled 1931 miles in answer to these calls and spent 190 hours and 30 minutes in manhours

They had six heart attact patients, five of whom were in need of oxygen. Five calls were answered for automobile accidents and ten persons were treated at the scene and then transported to the hospital and further treatment.

Last month, the members of the local squad answered two calls for accidents with lawn mowers. One boy had cut off all five of his toes and another received a bad cut on the leg. All persons, young or old, should be extra careful when using lawn mowing equipment.

Other calls answered by the ACHS included: a stand-by at the donkey baseball game; four falls; three transports to hospital at doctors request; two sudden illnesses; two strokes; one head injury; one gun shot-wound; three persons with breathing difficulty; one eye injury; one drag and search assist; 2 dead on arrival; one broken hip; one overdose; one convulsion; one treated for cut; and one call for a fight.

County Schools To Receive Title VIB Grant

The Appomattox County Public Schools have been selected again to be the recipient of a Title VIB Project grant. This federal assistance is funded by the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. During 1972 - 73, a Special Education program at the Appomattox Primary School received $11,496. For the 1973-74 session, a similar project will be in effect at the Appomattox Intermediate School. The amount to be received under Title VIB will be $14,000. The program at the Primary School is being taken into the county budget.

The students served are the educable mentally retarded who are provided the services of a resource teacher and, also, function for a part of each day in a regular classroom. The project allows the students to

First Tele-Auction Brings Good Prices

The first Tele-auction held on Monday, June 4, 1973, at the Farmville Livestock Market by the Piedmont Pork Producers for slaughter hogs was quite successful for a first-try.

Prices for the slaughter hogs were $39.95 per hundred weight as compared to $37.25 prices in Richmond at the same time.

Approximately 200 hogs were offered for sale, 120 of these were graded No. 1 and No. 2. The prices were considered to be good but the quantity was low.

Tele-auction sales are scheduled to take place each Monday but in order for the sales to be completely successful the number of hogs offered for sale must increase.

FIREMEN ANSWER ONE CALL

During the week of May 28th, the Appomattox Volunteer Department answered one call.

On June 1st at 12:30 p.m. two trucks and 9 men responded to a call for an investigation of smoke in a house. No damage was done.

Gene Mims Ordained At Liberty

On Sunday evening, May 27, 1973, the Liberty Baptist Church ordained Mr. O. Eugene Mims to the Gospel Ministry. Mr. Jack Caldwell, who read Scripture, also reflected upon the years in which Mr. Mims grew up in Appomattox and Liberty Baptist Church.

The Rev. Deryl Holliday, pastor of New Hope Baptist Church, gave a brief challenge to the church and Rev. Dennis Moore, pastor of the Hebron Baptist Church, gave the charge to the candidate.

Part of the service included the Laying On Of The Hands by all ordained pastors and deacons present. The prayer of dedication was led by his pastor, Rev. Richard C. Brackin, after which a gift of commentaries was presented to the candidate.

Mr. Mims is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Mims of Appomattox. Mr. V. O. Mims is Chairman of Deacons and Brotherhood president of Liberty Baptist Church.

Rev. Richard Brackin, pastor of the church said to the church, "This is the finest candidate for the Gospel Ministry that I have seen in my many years of experience."

Mr. Gene Mims was a graduate of Appomattox County High School in 1968 and was graduated from V.P.I. and S.U. in 1972 with a B.A. degree. He has completed one year toward the Master of Divinity degree at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas. He is presently serving as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Gober, Texas.

Swimming Classes To Begin June 18

The Appomattox County Jaycees, with the cooperation of the Virginia YMCA, will sponsor swimming classes again this year.

Classes are set to begin on Monday, June 18, 1973 at the TRAVELERS INN MOTEL in Appomattox.

The Jaycees will have the same instructor, Miss Susan Oliver, teaching the classes.

Appomattox County Jaycees would like to thank in advance Mr. and Mrs. Ray Noble, owners of the Travelers Inn, for the use of their pool again this year.

If you need an application to register your child for classes you may obtain one at the Fidelity National Bank, Hillcrest Branch; or at the Travelers Inn.

SOUTHERN STATES ANNUAL MEETING SET FOR JULY 25

The local Southern States Cooperative annual membership meeting for the Appomattox area will be held July 25, 1973.

This decision was made by local farmer-members at a recent annual meeting conference held by Coleman and Sons, Inc.

Among the features of this year's session will be the reports on Southern States Cooperative and the local Agency operations for the fiscal year which ends on June 30.

In addition there will be elections and other business matters. Members will elect two new board members and two new farm home advisory committee members.

Attending the conference were Ronald and Dan Coleman, manager of Coleman & Sons, Inc. and G. M. Slater, a member of Southern States Cooperative's regional headquarters staff, at Richmond.

Also at the session were the following members of the local Board/Stockholder Committee and the Farm Home Advisory Committee: John H. Goin, John P. Alvis, E. Clark Lewis, Mrs. W. C. Paulette, Mrs. I. Watts Moore, Mrs. William D. O'Brien, Mrs. Earl Pickett, and Mrs. Douglas Jennings.

Lee Academy To Add Grade

Announcement has been made that the Board of Directors of Robert E. Lee Academy voted at their May meeting to include grades one through seven for the 1973-74 school year.

During the 1972-74 school year the first through sixth grades only were included.

The members of the board felt that the Eighth Grade was the proper time for children to transfer to Prince Edward Academy.
